

Industry Leader Named CEO

VXI Corporation, a leading manufacturer of hands-free communications solutions, has appointed Michael W. Ferguson to the position of President and CEO. Mr. Ferguson arrives with thirty years of management experience and twelve years of relevant industry experience, including a position as Vice President of Sales and Marketing at GN Netcom, a worldwide leader in hands-free communication products, where he actively contributed to the Company's growth. Mr. Ferguson's extensive market experience will help to guide the Company's aggressive growth plans. www.vxicorp.com

CallerXchange Reaches 180 Countries Worldwide

CallerXchange, the world's fastest growing person-to-person mobile contact exchange service, continues to expand its worldwide reach. To date, mobile subscribers have used the service to grow their social networks and connect with friends and colleagues in over 180 different countries around the globe. With CallerXchange, subscribers can exchange contact information with 1-click on their phone. OnePIN continues to deploy CallerXchange with new mobile network operators, helping them unlock the value of the mobile phonebook, retain subscribers and maximize mobile service usage. www.onepin.com

Enterprise Mobility Conference

Pyxis Mobile, the leading provider of innovative wireless applications that meet the diverse needs of the financial services & insurance industries, has announced its 4th Annual Financial Mobility Summit in Orlando, FL. Lasting from November 12-14, this industry event, organized by Pyxis, will bring together innovators, experts and leading mobility and financial services technology companies to explore the critical business and technology issues facing companies who are implementing mobility across their enterprise. For more information, visit www.pyxismobile.com/fms2008

Sony Ericsson First to Launch

In a world first, Sony Ericsson is launching the Zeemote™ JS1 Controller featuring Bluetooth™ technology with an exclusive promotion throughout hundreds of retail outlets across the Netherlands. "We're delighted to be giving our Netherlands customers the opportunity to be the first to own an award winning Zeemote™ JS1 Controller," said Max Van Den Berg, General Manager at Sony Ericsson Benelux. "Adding a new dimension, such as controllers for mobile gaming, gives us and our customers a competitive edge!" www.zeemote.com